

Getting here:

By Car

Whether coming in from the East or the West on the M-27, take the M-275 Portsmouth

- Follow the 2-lane highway over the flyover until you come to a roundabout
- At the roundabout go straight on (2nd exit), staying on 3-lane road
- After 150 metres, you will come to another roundabout - turn right here (you cannot go straight on), into Hope Street
- At the next roundabout, go straight (onto Market Way) and then again straight at the next roundabout (onto Alfred Road)
- At the traffic lights, take the middle lane, and go straight down Anglesea Road, passing under the Railway Bridge, and past the large grey ship-shaped building on the left
- At the end of Anglesea Road, take the right-hand lane and go round the large traffic island roundabout into Lord Montgomery Way
- Turn left into Hampshire Terrace, then first left into Wiltshire Street
- Park in the University Wiltshire car park (free after 6pm) or on St Paul's Street, in front of The Old Vic pub (metered parking)
- If you look down the street, you will see Café Parisien in front of you

By Train

The nearest Station to the café is Portsmouth & Southsea. Come out of the station and turn Left, walk through the Guildhall Square continue straight along Guildhall Walk until you see 'Route 66' night club on your left. Cross the road once at the traffic light and turn right and on the right is Café Parisien.
